SB221TNC
SB221TNO

Notes:

- There are no changes to the location at which the switches are manufactured.
- For S331T, the identification method will change from printing on the switch body to printing on a clear label.
- During this transition process, some of the switches with previous labels may be inadvertently combined with switches displaying the new method of identification.
- Contact factory if more details are needed.

Effective Date

Changes to S Series Toggles and SB Series Pushbuttons identification labels will be effective November 2014.
